

Dawson Design Associates Appoints New Director of London Design Studio

Dawson Design Associates, Ltd. is pleased to announce and welcome, Louise Parr as Managing Director of the DDA London office.

The recent appointment occurs in accordance to the firm's two-year goal of developing their European branch; the sister office to DDA's headquarters located in Seattle, WA for the past 27 years.

Louise, a native of Scotland, served most recently in a Director role at Michael Fiebrich Design in Singapore, preceded by 3 years spent as a Sr. Designer at Wilson Associates Singapore. Bringing over 20 years of senior design and management expertise to the team, Louise's past experience includes projects with Hyatt, Four Seasons, Conrad for Hilton, ITC and Shangri-La Hotels & Resorts.

"I look forward to continuing to create exciting and innovative hospitality interiors with DDA. I love their artistic, interactive design approach and am excited about the future," states Louise.
